Numb. 5120

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 12 to Saturday May 16. 1713

St. James's, May 12.

THE following Addreſs from the City of New Sarum, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Pitt, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by ſeveral Gentlemen of the County of Wilts; being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, having always borne a grateful Part, in acknowledging the glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms during the War; do with a hearty Joy and Affection, beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the more valuable Bleſſing of Peace, now ſo happily concluded, which as it has been effected by Your Majeſty's wiſe Conduct, we are perſuaded is not only Honourable and Advantageous to Your own People, but Safe, Juſt and Reaſonable for all Your Allies.

The ſteddy Reſolution Your Majeſty has ſhewn in attaining the happy End of Your pious Endeavours, thro' the many Difficulties contrived to Obſtruct the ſame, requires our greateſt Applauſe; and we cannot alſo but do Juſtice to the Merit and Fidelity of thoſe who have had the Honour to ſerve Your Majeſty in perfecting this great Work.

The many groundleſs Fears and Jealouſies which have been factiouſly invented and induſtriouſly ſpread abroad, with Deſign to alienate Your People's Affections, and to bring Reproach upon Your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration and Government, give us a juſt Abhorrence of ſuch wicked Practices, when we have ſo eminent Proofs of Your tender Regard and Concern, not only for our preſent Happineſs, but of our Poſterity; alſo by the Care You have taken to ſecure the Intereſt and Friendſhip of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, which is the greateſt Bleſſing (next to thoſe we enjoy under Your Majeſty) that can attend us, and for which, future Ages will be obliged to bleſs Your Majeſty's glorious Memory.

The following Addreſs from the County Palatine of Cheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir George Warburton, Bart. and Charles Cholmondeley, Eſq; Knights of the Shire; being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN'S moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County Palatine of Cheſter, aſſembled at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at the Caſtle of Cheſter.

HItherto the Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Arms has been the Theme of our Congratulatory Addreſſes, but thoſe Triumphs were uſually allay'd by ſome afflicting Circumſtances, and the Victories purchaſed with great Profuſion of Blood and Treaſure; now with unmixt Joy we approach Your Throne, to return our humble Thanks for the Bleſſing of Peace, which inſtead of empty Honour, brings with it Safety and ſolid Advantage.

Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Reſolution, the Induſtry and Application of Your Miniſtry, manifeſted in the accompliſhment of this deſirable Work, juſtly merit our Admiration and Applauſe, but above all, the Affection wherewith Your Majeſty embraces the Intereſt of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, is a gracious Evidence of Your tender regard to the Proteſtant Religion, and the welfare of Your People, who eſteeming their Felicity under Your Majeſty's Government to be compleat, have nothing more to wiſh than the long continuance of it.

The following Addreſs from the City of Cheſter was preſented to Her Majeſty by Peter Shakerley Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Abingdon.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Citizens of Your Majeſty's antient and loyal City of Cheſter.

PErmit us (moſt Gracious Sovereign) amidſt the loud Applauſes of Europe, to approach Your Royal Preſence with our dutiful and thankful Acknowledgments for the moſt comprehenſive Bleſſing of an honourable Peace, which we attribute (next under GOD) to Your Majeſty's powerful Influence and Authority.

We are truly ſenſible, that nothing leſs than Your Majeſty's own Firmneſs and Reſolution in the juſt Exerciſe of Your Prerogative, with the indefatigable Application of Your Miniſters, could have enabled Your Majeſty to have Overcome the manifold Difficulties which have attended this great and neceſſary Work.

We cannot be ſufficiently thankful for Your Majeſty's particular Concern for the Intereſts of the Church of England, for ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, and for eſtabliſhing a perfect Friendſhip with that Illuſtrious Family, and for aſſuring Your People that no Ill-deſigning Men ſhall have Power to ſeparate Your Intereſts.

We beg leave to aſſure Your Majeſty of our inviolable Affection to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and that we will in our ſeveral Stations be ſubſervient to Your Majeſty's pious Endeavours for Cultivating the Arts of Peace among Your People, beſeeching Almighty GOD, that Your Majeſty, who hath done ſo many Great and Glorious

Things

Things for the Good of all Your Subjects, may reap and long enjoy the most acceptable Returns of their united Duty and Gratitude.

The following Address from the Town of Southampton, was presented to Her Majesty by Richard Fleming and Roger Harris, Esqrs, their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Southampton.

May it please Your Majesty,

IT is with the greatest Transport of Joy imaginable, that we beg leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the successful Conclusion of Your Negotiations for a Peace.

Those Difficulties, which with the utmost Art a discontented Faction had raised against Your great and good Designs, have only served to raise Your Glory higher, and to Illustrate to the World the Excellency of Your Discernment in chusing such a Ministry, whose indefatigable Industry and sufficient Abilities have utterly confounded the dark Stratagems of those who are equal Enemies to Your Majesty and Peace.

The perfect Friendship between Your Majesty and the Illustrious House of Hanover, will effectually, we hope, take away the very Pretence, made use of by a Sett of Men to raise Fears and Jealousies in Your Subjects.

The earnest Desire You are pleased to express for the Encouragement of our Trade, the easing those Taxes which a long expensive War had rendered almost too heavy to be born, Your care of those Men who have bravely hazarded their Lives abroad, and Your endeavour to prevent those who would ignobly spill each others Blood at home, tho' they express the greatest Tenderness, yet seem not to fulfil the Measure of Your Affection to Your People; but by Your Zeal to Suppress all Impiety, especially the scandalous Licentiousness of those Men, who not only dare Attack our Religion and Constitution themselves, but by Printing their Blasphemous and Rebellious Notions, industriously disperse them in our present, and transmit them down to future Ages, You sensibly engage Heaven to a Confirmation and long Permission of those Blessings to us.

And certainly it would be the greatest Instance of Ingratitude, if we should not with unfeigned Sincerity assure Your Majesty, That we will with our utmost Power endeavour to merit that Confidence You are pleased so graciously to repose in us, by an unshaken Loyalty to Your Person, a constant Opposition to all Invasions of Your Prerogative and Government, and an earnest Supplication to Heaven, for a long continuance of Your Majesty's most Sacred Life amongst us.

The following Address from the Borough of Agmondesham, was presented to Her Majesty by Col. Francis Duncombe and Col. John Drake, their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Right Hon. William Lord Cheyney, Viscount Newhaven, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Burgesses and Inhabitants of Your antient Borough of Agmondesham in the County of Bucks.

WE Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects most humbly beg leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon that glrious Peace, of which Your Majesty, thro' Divine Providence, is the wise and happy Dispenser, and wherein all Your good Subjects heartily rejoice.

Your Majesty's tender Care to preserve Religion, Liberty and Property, and securing the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, as by Law Establish'd, are undeniable Instances of Your Majesty's great Affection and Concern for the Safety and Welfare of Your People, and claims our utmost Acknowledgments.

Your Majesty's unparallel'd Patience and Princely Vertues, have surmounted the wicked Designs and malicious Endeavours of Men that delight in War.

Your Majesty's Magnamity, Sincerity and zealous Endeavours, to promote the Peace and Interest of all Your High Allies, fills with Praise and Admiration the Hearts of all that love to cultivate the Arts of Peace.

We daily and earnestly pray unto Almighty God, that Your Majesty may long Reign over Your Kingdoms, in the full Enjoyment of Your Prerogative; and that the Church of England may abide and flourish, and let every hurtful Device fail.

The following Address from the Corporation of Ludlow, was Presented to Her Majesty by Sir Thomas Powys, Kt. Her Majesty's Serjeant at Law, and Acton Baldwyn, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; being Introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Town of Ludlow in the County of Salop, in the Council-Chamber there assembled, together with the Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Town-Clerk of the same Town, at the General Sessions of the Peace held by Adjournment to the same Place, the One and twentieth Day of April 1713. with the Minister, and other the principal Inhabitants of the said Town.

PErmit us, Dread Sovereign, among the rest of Your Loyal Subjects, at this time, to Congratulate the Effects of Your Majesty's most unparallel'd Goodness, which has deliver'd us, by a Peace, from that Danger which inseparably attends all, even the most prevailing Conquests, and secur'd our former Successes against the Chance of War.

Great and, to any other Person, insuperable have been the Difficulties which have retarded so glorious a Work; but, God be prais'd, they have serv'd to no other end, than to add a greater Lustre to Your Wisdom, since it is so happily accomplish'd.

Your Majesty's peculiar Care and generous Disposition, will incline all to believe, that you have had a tender Regard to the Advantages of Your Allies; and Your own People do not doubt, but that they shall have it in their Power, by degrees, to repair what they have suffer'd during during ſo long and burthenſome a War; ſince by this Peace, our Trade is to be open'd agreeably to all our Wiſhes, and Your Dominion, even beyond our higheſt Idea, unexpectedly enlarg'd.

Your repeated Declarations from the Throne, are ſufficient to convince all, that the Proteſtant Succeſſion, ſettled in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, is as much at Your Majeſty's Heart, as the Welfare of Your People.

May the Deſigns of ſuch, who for nameleſs Ends and diſguis'd Pretences endeavour to interrupt ſo important a Friendſhip, and upon which the future Happineſs of this Kingdom ſo much depends, be for ever fruitleſs and unſucceſsful.

We cannot be inſenſible, how far the Principles of Sedition and Prophaneſs, of late ſo inſolently Printed and Publiſh'd, to the high Diſhonour of God, and the Danger of Your Crown and Dignity, have favoured the Growth of Irreligious Opinions; which we, in our ſeveral Stations, will endeavour to ſuppreſs, as far as we are authoriz'd by Law.

It ſhall be our utmoſt Concern to reſtrain that unruly Spirit of Faction which is gone out among us, occaſion'd and fomented by the Jealouſies of unreaſonable and deſigning Men; that there may be no other Contention left, but who ſhall approve himſelf the beſt of Subjects to the beſt of QUEENS.

May Your Majeſty long live to enjoy the Fruits of that Peace, which with ſo ſteady an Application you have procur'd for Your People: And may they all pay as ſincere and undisguis'd Loyalty, as do, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Iſle of Portland, was Preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's Loyal Subjects, and Tenants, of Your Manour and Iſle of Portland.

PArdon, Dread Sovereign, that, amongſt Crouds of Votaries, We alſo preſume to pay our Homage and our Acknowledgments at Your Royal Feet: For we are Yours by a double Obligation; Your Tenants as well as Subjects; and vow, That we will hold our Lives and Lands by the ſame Tenure, only From the Crown, willingly to lay down Both a Sacrifice, whenever Your Majeſty ſhall Command them.

And for the Sincerity of this our Profeſſion, We humbly offer this Only Argument; That during all the boiſterous Storms which Faction and Sedition could ever raiſe, We, like our Iſland amidſt the Waves, have remained unbroken and unſhaken, and have been ſo ſteady and unanimous, that but one of our Inhabitants could be perverted from the wholſome and loyal Doctrines of the Church of England, from which we have happily learn'd to mind our own Buſineſs, to Fear God, and Honour our Lawful Sovereign, to Pray for the Peace of our Jeruſalem, and now (with Hearts full of Thankfulneſs and Joy) to Congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty on the happy effecting of the much long'd-for Peace for your own Dominions and your Allies, notwithſtanding the Obſtructions it has met with from thoſe who ſpeak evil of things that they do not know, nor that do belong to them.

Our Iſland yields Stone for your Royal Buildings, and has ſupply'd it for the Magnificent Cathedral, and other Churches of your Metropolis.

We are now, with all Chearfulneſs, at work in Raiſing Stone for the Fifty new Churches to be added in that Great City and its Precincts; and ſhould with the greateſt Tranſport, receive Commands for getting Stone for the Building a new Palace for Your Majeſty in this Year of Peace.

And, Madam, pleaſe to accept of our Hearts, whereon to Found and Rear a Throne for Your Majeſty and Your Rightful Succeſſors; and the Cement ſhall be our Blood.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, May 7. N. S. The Electoral Prince of Saxony is ſhortly expected here in his way to Germany; being reſolved, as it is ſaid, to continue firm to the Proteſtant Religion, in which he was educated. Signior Tron, lately nominated Ambaſſador in Ordinary to the Queen of Great Britain, is preparing to ſet out for London, to relieve Signior Grimani, who is appointed to go in the ſame Quality to Vienna. Letters from Rome bring Advice, that the Marquis de Suza was upon his Departure from thence, fully ſatisfied with the great Honours and Civilities he had received, notwithſtanding the Differences between the Duke of Savoy and the Pope, about the Diſpoſal of Eccleſiaſtical Preferments in Piedmont ſtill ſubſiſted. The ſame Letters add, That an Edict had been publiſh'd, forbidding all Perſons to come into that City without a Bill of Health, atteſted by the chief Magiſtrates of the Place they had laſt inhabited. The Ambaſſadors of Portugal and Malta were to make their Publick Entries in a few Days. We have an Account from Naples, that the Superbe and Ormond, two Britiſh Men of War, were arrived there from Sicily; where they found the Nobility very deſirous of ſeeing the Duke of Savoy on the Throne of that Kingdom. Thoſe Ships were preparing to ſail for Leghorne. Letters from Conſtantinople of the Fourteenth of March inform us, that when the King of Sweden was come within two Leagues of Adrianople, he ſent to acquaint the Grand Signior of a Conſpiracy formed by the Mufti, the Aga of the Janizaries, the Paſhaw of Bender, and the Han of Tartary, to deliver up his Majeſty to the Muſcovites: The three firſt were Depoſed; and a great Council was to be held at Adrianople, in the King's Preſence, to conſider in what manner the War ſhould be carried on againſt the Czar.

Hamburgh, May 16. N. S. We have received Advice, that the Conferences between Count Steinbock and the Miniſters of the Allies are again broke off. The Count had agreed to ſurrender himſelf Priſoner of War; to leave his Artillery, Baggage, Standards and Colours; to remain with his his Forces in the King of Denmark's Country, till he had paid the Ranſom for them; and then to be Tranſported to Sweden at his Maſter's Expence. But when they came to treat upon the Subject of Tonningen, his Daniſh Majeſty inſiſted to be abſolute Maſter of it, without admitting any of the Troops of Holſtein into the Garriſon. Upon which the Count ſaid, that was not in his Power to grant, till he had firſt diſcourſed with Baron Bennier, the young Duke of Holſtein's Miniſter, who was at that time in the Town. Soon after he went thither himſelf, and ſent a Trumpeter to acquaint the Miniſters of the Allies, that he could not agree to the Article about Tonningen, and that he would rather ſuffer any Extremity. Since this Declaration there have been no more Conferences; however we are informed by an Expreſs arrived laſt Night from Huſum, that the Artillery had not begun to play againſt Tonningen on the fourteenth. They write from Vienna, that Count Sinzendorff arrived there on the firſt Inſtant, ſince which ſeveral Councils have been held in the Emperor's Preſence, to conſider whether it was adviſable to run the hazard of another Campaign; and it is ſaid his Imperial Majeſty inclined to that Opinion. Baron Tiepolt, the Emperor's Miniſter at the Court of Poland, hath been very preſſing with King Auguſtus to continue his Troops that have been in Flanders, in the Emperor's Service, to act upon the Rhine; but the King hath not yet declared poſitively what he will do, and hath only anſwered in general, that he would ſend Inſtructions upon this Subject to his Miniſters at Ratisbonne, and that his Envoy at Vienna ſhould inform his Imperial Majeſty more particularly of his Intentions. The lateſt Accounts we have from Turkey, came from Leopol, and contain in Subſtance, That the Sultan had depoſed the Grand Vizir, and placed in his room the Captain Paſhaw, or Great Admiral. The Mufti was alſo depoſed, and ſent into Baniſhment with the Paſhaw of Bender. It was not known what would be done with the Han of Tartary, who was in the late Mufti's Houſe at Adrianople. The Muſcovite Ambaſſadors were on the Road to the ſame Place, and it was believed the Grand Signior would make ſome Propoſals of Peace between the King of Sweden and their Maſter, having already offered his Mediation to that purpoſe. His Swediſh Majeſty continued within ſix Leagues of Adrianople, and King Staniſlaus at Bender.

Hanover, May 16. N. S. Count Hamilton came to this Court a few Days ago, to ſettle ſome Matters relating to the Elector's Troops in the Service of the Emperor, and is ſince gone back to conſult with Count Schonborn at Berlin. Some of our Forces that ſerved in Flanders laſt Campaign, were advanced as far as the Frontiers of this Electorate, without having met the Orders that were ſent them to March towards the Rhine; upon which, freſh Inſtructions have been diſpatch'd for them to go that way. Letters from Huſum bring an account, that the Conferences that had been renewed between the Allies and Count Steinbock, were again broke off on the 12th Inſtant, upon which the Trenches before Tonningen were immediately opened. The Duke of Wirtemberg commands the Army, and General Scholten the Attack. He undertakes to oblige the Place to ſurrender within ſix Days, after all the Batteries have begun to play. The Danes are very much diſſatisfy'd with Prince Menzikoff, for having ſent for Two thouſand Muſcovites out of Pomerania, to join his Army. They ſay they had a ſufficient number of Troops before to reduce the Swedes, and more than the Country could well ſubſiſt.

Bruſſels, May 18. N. S. Monſieur Dopff, Quarter-Maſter General of the Dutch Forces, arrived here two Days ago from Holland with an Account, that the Ratifications of the Treaty of Peace between the French King and the States-General have been Exchanged. He hath likewiſe brought Directions to Count Tilly about taking Poſſeſſion of the Places France is to yield to the Allies in purſuance of the Treaty. Whereupon the Count ſet out this Morning towards Tournay, in order to ſettle with Mareſchal Monteſquiou the Days for the French Forces to evacuate thoſe Places, and the Quantities of Ammunition and Artillery that are to remain in them. The Conferences upon this Subject are to be held either at St. Amand or Orchies.

Utrecht, May 19. N. S. On the Seventeenth Baron Kirchner, one of the Plenipotentiaries of his Imperial Majeſty, ſet out from hence towards Frankfort, in purſuance of Orders he had received from the Court of Vienna to that purpoſe. Yeſterday the Miniſters of Savoy had a Conference with the Queen's Plenipotentiaries, and this Day their Lordſhips were in Conference with the Miniſters of the Empire.

Paris,

Paris, May 22. N. S. This Day the Peace with Great Britain, Portugal, Pruſſia, Savoy, and the States-General, was Proclaimed here with great Solemnity, and Acclamations of the People. On the 25th Te Deum is to be Sung, and the Engliſh Nobility and Perſons of Diſtinction, are to be Entertain'd by the Duke de Treſme, Governour of this City, with a Ball, a Supper, and Fireworks. Mareſchal Villars ſet out this Day towards Germany, in order to take upon him the Command of the Army that is to act on the Upper Rhine. Mareſchal Beſons is to be Head of the Forces on the Moſelle, which it is ſaid will be very numerous.

Bruſſels, May 22. N. S. Two Days ago Eight Battalions of the Dutch Forces cantoned in this Province, marched towards Namure, in order to take Poſſeſſion of that Place with Charleroy; and ſeveral Battalions from the Meuſe are advanced likewiſe towards Luxemburg to the ſame Purpoſe. The Three Battalions of Her Majeſty's Forces, who are to remain in Garriſon at Newport, are reported to be marched alſo that way, ſome Days ago. Letters of Yeſterday from Tournay aſſure, that all things being regulated concerning the Evacuation of the Places to be given up on that Side by the Treaty of Peace, the Mareſchal de Monteſquiou expected every Moment the return of a Courier he diſpatch'd to the French Court, for the laſt Orders on that Subject.

Notice is hereby given, that on Monday the 1ſt of June, at 10 of the Clock in the Forenoon, there will be a General Quarterly Court of the Governours of the Bounty of Queen ANNE for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, at the New Buildings adjoining the Banquetting-houſe, Whitehall.
